Class: Wednesday 6-7 & Thursday 8

Classroom : 804 & 704 Semi-conductor BD.

Course Category: Optional course for 3rd year Hotel & Air Service major students

Course Description: This course will broaden students' perspectives and understanding of English usage through the context of debates and discussions. Understanding various speaking strategies will endow skills which are useful for negotiations, discussions, and achieving particular speaking goals in both and informal and a professional setting. This will be beneficial for any students who wish to work in multinational companies, study or work abroad and/or are interested in communicative English strategies. Moreover, it will provide detailed explanations on the cultural variations and historical account of how English has altered in a global context.

Objectives: The main objective for students is to advance their understanding of English discussion-based language and expand their vocabulary portfolio. Secondary objectives are to introduce and develop various practical discussion based speaking strategies. Students will be exposed to a variety of critical discussion topics, become familiar with relevant lexicon, and explore a variety of speaking strategies to become more confident and knowledgeable speakers. Therefore, this course will not only encourage practical English communication in a 'native' manner but also provide a solid understanding of how to discuss various contemporary topics.

Teaching Methods: 1. Class Lecture in English
2. Classroom Activities (pair work or small group work)

Main Textbook: Ken Wilson & Alice Savage (2021). Smart Choice 3. Oxford University Press.

Course Requirements: Students are responsible for both the readings and the lectures

Attendance: Students are required to be present in all class sessions. Students who come to class later than 5 minutes from the designated class time will be regarded as tardy. All absences should accompany proper documentations to be excused. If you have to miss a class, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate to ask about the assigned homework and in-class handouts. You are responsible for all missed work. Students who are absent more than one-third of the classes or who do not take either mid-term or final-term exam will have "F" in the course.

Class participations: Class participation includes regularly attending class, arriving on time, staying until the end of class, being prepared, silencing your cell phones, and actively engaging in class activities and discussions. Participation also involves respecting your classmates by refraining from any derogatory remarks.

Assignments: Late assignments will not be accepted. Students are supposed to submit assignments at the beginning of the classes.

Midterm and final exams: Midterm and final exams will be based on the material, information covered in classroom activities and class materials.

Assessment:

1. Mid-term Examination (30%)
2. Final-term Examination (30%)
3. Attendance (20%)
4. Assignment (10%)
5. Quiz & Class Participation (10%)
